1 Today's Gospel

God So Loved the World

Jesus was talking with a man called Nicodemus. He reminded him of a story from long ago. When God's people were in the desert, many were bitten by snakes and became sick. Moses put a bronze snake high up on a pole, and everyone who looked at it got better! Jesus said that He, too, would be lifted up — on the cross.

Then Jesus said some of the most wonderful words in the whole Bible: "God loved the world so much that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him may not be lost but may have eternal life."

God did not send Jesus to punish the world, but to save it. Jesus is the light that shines in the dark. When we tell the truth and do good things, we come into His light — close to Jesus!

Big idea: God loves the whole world — and that means you! He loves us so much that He gave us Jesus to save us.

Listen at Mass: Today is Laetare Sunday — "Rejoice!" The priest might wear rose pink. In the second reading, St Paul says God is "rich in mercy" and loves us with a great love.
