1 Today's Gospel

Hosanna! Here Comes Jesus!

Jesus and His friends were coming near the big city of Jerusalem. Jesus sent two disciples to a village to fetch a young donkey that nobody had ever ridden. If anyone asks, He said, tell them: "The Master needs it."

Jesus sat on the donkey. People spread their cloaks on the road and laid down leafy branches. Everyone shouted, "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!"

They were welcoming Jesus like a King! At Mass we wave palms too. Then we hear how Jesus died on the cross because He loves us so much. But that is not the end — Easter is coming!

Big idea: Jesus is our King, and we welcome Him with joy — this Holy Week we remember how He gave His life because He loves us.

Listen at Mass: In the second reading, St Paul says that at the name of Jesus everyone should bow and say "Jesus Christ is Lord!" And listen for the moment in the long Gospel when everyone kneels quietly.
